Film Journal Assessment

History of Film

Film: _____

Journal/log #

OBJECTIVE:

When writing a journal response paper, I am looking for indications that you are learning, reflecting and applying information within this class - any opinions that you have — even if they are different from mine — are perfectly acceptable if you back it up with good examples and a strong argument. I should be able to see that you've put forth an effort, used relevant vocabulary, supported your opinions and are thinking deeply/growing as a writer as you reflect on each film. Please note that if Film Journals are not completed on time or are illegible, points will be deducted.
